S I R:

This is in response to the outstanding office communication dated October 2, 2002. Any necessary fees should be deducted from Deposit Account No. 01-1944.

In the office communication, the Examiner has alleged that two inventions exist with the first represented by group I inclusive of claims 1-4 drawn to a calcium-binding protein and the second group II inclusive of claims 18-24 drawn to an antibody. Restriction between the two inventions has been requested under 35 USC 121 based on the two inventions being distinct, each from the other as set forth in the office communication.
